

UC TEECE MUSEUM

POETRY WORKSHOP

TUESDAY 9TH JULY

2PM-3.30PM

UC Arts City Location, 3
Hereford St, CHCH

Not Your Typical Poetry Workshop!

What's your type of poetry? Local poet and author Rebecca Nash invites you to explore new and old favourite forms of poetry in this workshop for young writers (age 12 years and over). Drawing on inspiration from the ancient Greek and Roman objects from the Logie Collection, attendees will be guided to respond and experiment in a variety of poetic styles.

Tickets $5, caregivers free. Places are limited, so registration is essential! Book now at:
<https://events.humanitix.com/not-your-typical-poetry-workshop>

All other enquiries to:
teecemuseum@canterbury.ac.nz

Rebecca Nash:

Rebecca Nash is a poet who lives in Lyttelton. She has an MA in Creative Writing from IIML and an MA in Samuel Beckett from the University of Canterbury. Her book for children, Wilbur's Walk, was published in 2021. She is a mother to two dogs, two cats and a nine year old girl-human.

